General

Registration at the IUCN Leaders Forum (“the event”) is open to anybody.

You must agree and adhere to these terms and conditions in order to participate in the event.

IUCN strives to provide a professional, respectful and harassment-free event experience for everyone. We celebrate the diversity of all event delegates, exhibitors and staff, and we expect every delegate to conduct herself/himself/themselves in a professional, respectful and responsible manner at all times and to comply with The IUCN Anti-harassment Policy, including bullying and sexual harassment, for IUCN events.

By attending the event whether onsite or virtually, you are agreeing to respect and ensure a harassment-free event. You also agree to refrain from behaviour, which goes against The IUCN Anti-harassment Policy, including bullying and sexual harassment, for IUCN events and the applicable law. If you engage in such behaviour, you may be asked to leave the event at the sole discretion of IUCN.

You must not take part in any canvassing, leafleting, demonstrations, objectionable behaviour or any activity, which may disrupt the event.

Smoking will only be permitted within the clearly designated smoking areas. Any fines for infringements of this ban shall be borne by the delegates.

IUCN reserves the right to deny you participation in a specific session and/or to stop any activity on your part that may interfere with, or cause annoyance to other delegates.

You must comply with the security and sanitary requirements imposed by the venue and/or local/national authorities. You may not bring weapons (firearms and ammunition, knives and sharp objects), easily flammable or explosive substances including pyrotechnics, drones, dogs (except guide dogs), gases or hazardous substances (including chemical pesticides and insecticides), or foul-smelling substances or radioactive sources. Other restrictions may apply. You may not circulate with vehicles within the venue including un-motorised vehicles like bikes, scooters, etc.

IUCN and the Host Country (the “organisers”) reserve the right to exclude or remove you from the event if you do not comply with these terms and conditions.

You are required to present a copy of an official identity card, passport or another acceptable identification document to obtain your badge. The registration badge is the only onsite identification document during the entire period of the event. It is personal to you and cannot be transferred to a third party. If you lose or forget your badge, you may not be allowed access to the event. You must report any lost badges to reception/security.
